RUTGERS SCARLET KNIGHTS (8-8, 0-3) vs. LOUISVILLE CARDINALS (11-4, 1-1)

SUNDAY • JANUARY 13, 2008 • 12:00 P.M. (ET)
 THE RAC (8,000) • PISCATAWAY, NEW JERSEY

Television: The game will be televised live on MSG, with Scott Graham calling the action and Bob Wenzel providing the commentary. It will also be part of the ESPN Full Court package, available on DirecTV and the Dish Network, as well as on the web at www.espn360.com.

Radio: The contest will be broadcast live on the Rutgers Radio Network, WOR 710 AM in New York City and WCTC 1450 AM in New Brunswick. Bruce Johnson will serve as play-by-play announcer and Dick Lloyd will provide commentary. WRSU 88.7 FM will also broadcast the game.

Rutgers, under the leadership of second-year head coach Fred Hill, returns to the friendly confines of the RAC to host Louisville in a 12 noon tip-off on Sunday. The Scarlet Knights will be looking to snap a three game skid and earn their first BIG EAST win of the season. The Cardinals, who are receiving votes in the AP poll, have won six of their last seven contests and will be seeking a 2-1 mark in league play.

Sunday afternoon's contest marks the sixth meeting between Rutgers and Louisville on the hardwood dating back to 1975, with the Cardinals holding a 4-1 advantage in victories. The Scarlet Knights won the last meeting by a 65-56 score on January 28, 2006 in the only series match-up at the RAC. It marked RU's last win over a ranked opponent, as UL entered the game No. 22 nationally. Current Sacramento Kings guard Quincy Douby scored a game-high 19 points to fuel the win, while then freshman JR Inman added 13.

Rutgers (8-8, 0-3) is coming off a 76-50 loss at Providence this past Wednesday evening. Inman scored 11 points and Anthony Farmer tallied 10, but it was not enough to overcome a poor second half shooting performance. The Scarlet Knights made 50 percent (12-24) of their first half shots, including four of eight from behind the arc, to enter the locker room at the mid-point trailing by one, 35-34. After the break, 12 of RU's points came from the charity stripe.

Inman, who is among the BIG EAST leaders in four categories, ranks 78th nationally in rebounds (8.3), while sophomore center Hamady Ndiaye ranks ninth nationally with 3.4 blocks per contest.

Louisville (11-4, 1-1) is fresh from a 63-54 home win over West Virginia Thursday evening. Three Cardinals scored in double figures, including Earl Clark, who posted 11 points and grabbed 12 rebounds off the bench in 26 minutes of action. Clark paces the team in rebounding, averaging 10.1 boards per contest to rank 15th nationally. Terrance Williams (11.9) leads five players who average double figures in the scoring column for UL. The Cardinals are ranked 22nd nationally in scoring defense (59.6) and 16th in field goal percentage defense (37.7).

RUTGERS MEN'S BASKETBALL MISSION STATEMENT

1. Recruit and mentor young men to be true student-athletes via a foundation of leadership, academic success and life skills. Afford all members of the program the necessary resources and support to attain personal fulfillment while collectively achieving team goals.
2. Relentlessly pursue and win a BIG EAST Conference and National Championship by conducting a daily operation that ensures uncompromised success.
3. Serve the surrounding communities and the state of New Jersey through a concerted effort to make a difference in the lives of children and the disadvantaged. Recognize and respect the responsibility we have in contributing toward the lives of others.
4. Enhance the image of the state and University that we represent via successful daily interaction with alumni, high schools, media, students and fans. Be a valuable component of the institutions we serve.

QUICK SHOTS

- The Scarlet Knights are 6-0 when outshooting their opponent, and 7-1 when shooting between 40 and 49 percent this season.
- Since 1947, Rutgers is 3-7 all-time on games played on Jan. 13. The last time RU played on this date it fell to DePaul 60-37 at the RAC last season. JR Inman had 10 points and Hamady Ndiaye grabbed a then career-high eight rebounds in the loss.
- Rutgers is 1-4 all-time against Louisville. The last time these two teams faced off RU came away with the 65-56 home victory on Jan. 28, 2006. That game marks the only time the two teams have faced each other as conference opponents.
- Rutgers was 1-1 in games played on Jan. 13 under Bob Wenzel, who is serving as the television commentator for Sunday's contest. RU defeated Duquesne 70-67 in 1990 and fell at Utah State 70-79 in 1992.
- Rutgers saw its six game home-winning streak come to an end against No. 1 North Carolina. The team's 6-0 home start was its best since 2005-06. That season, the Scarlet Knights won their first seven home contests en route to a 19-14 record and an NIT berth. RU has a 326-141 record all-time at the RAC.
- With six returning lettermen on the squad, the Scarlet Knights are tied for the fewest number of veterans in the BIG EAST. Four of the six returning players have at least one full season of starting experience, with three competing as starters for at least two years.
- The BIG EAST will feature an 18-game conference schedule after playing a 16-game slate for the last eight seasons. The 18-game format will have teams play each opponent once and three opponents twice. Rutgers will play Louisville, Seton Hall and South Florida twice in 2007-08.

CARDINALS AT A GLANCE

- Louisville has five players averaging in double-figures: Terrence Williams (11.9), Earl Clark (11.8), Derrick Character (11.1), Jerry Smith (11.0) and David Padgett (10.0). Clark leads the team in rebounding with an average of 10.1 boards per game. He has picked up eight double-doubles this season.
- Louisville is coming off a 63-54 win over West Virginia. Jerry Smith led the way with 14 points, Earl Clark finished with 11 points and 12 rebounds, Edgar Sosa tallied 10 points and Terrence Williams dished out six assists to lead the Cardinals, who lost to Cincinnati, 58-57, in their league opener.
- These two teams have not faced each other since Rutgers pulled away for a 65-56 victory at the RAC on Jan. 28, 2006. JR Inman had 13 points and tied his career-high with five blocks and Anthony Farmer dished out a career-high tying eight assists in the victory.
- Louisville was picked to finish first, along with Georgetown, in the BIG EAST Pre-season Coaches' Poll released at the BIG EAST Media Day.
- Louisville head coach Rick Pitino is 505-186 in 21 seasons of coaching, including a 153-62 mark in six seasons as the Cardinals head coach. He is the only coach to bring three different schools to the Final Four (Providence, Kentucky, Louisville). As a collegiate head coach, Pitino has four NIT appearances and 12 NCAA Tournament appearances, including four Final Fours and one Championship (Kentucky 95-96).
- In his fifth season coaching in the BIG EAST (including two seasons as Providence's head coach), Pitino is 35-29 in conference play. Pitino is 1-1 all-time against Rutgers (1-0 as Kentucky's head coach and 0-1 as Louisville's head coach).
- 19 former Pitino assistant coaches or players have become collegiate head coaches, including Billy Donovan, the head coach of the two-time defending champion Florida Gators.
- Juan Palacios need two points to become the Cardinals' 58th career 1,000-point scorer. UL is second in the nation with 57 1,000-point scorers, one behind North Carolina. RU squared-off with the #1 Tar Heels on December 16.

HEARING AN ECKO

The Rutgers men's basketball team travelled to the Big Apple Thursday to visit with fashion designer and entrepreneur Marc Ecko at his corporate headquarters. A New Jersey native and former Rutgers student, Ecko hosted the Scarlet Knights in his office, providing advice and answering questions. The team then toured the facility. The visit to Marc Ecko Enterprises will be featured on Inside Rutgers Basketball 2008, which will air Friday evenings on MSG for eight consecutive weeks beginning January 25.

"What Fred Hill is trying to do, and what this team and every player collectively and as an individual is trying to do, is brand building...what's going to define success is a commitment to build this brand," said Ecko. "To build these guys up and to build the infrastructure that can help get them towards success.

"The players have to realize that a part of building this legacy, or building the blocks that will get them there, is for them to dig deep inside. Each and every one of these guys, individually, realizing they are doing this because they love it. It defines what they are made of. The lessons that they will learn in this pursuit, this journey to get there, will define some of the greatest moments of their lives, and set them on a journey, if it's basketball-centric or otherwise, whatever industry it will be, they will learn lessons here that will be applicable to the rest of their lives. That's why they have to do this, and that's why they have to dig down deep. I believe Freddie has the kind of moxy...the kind of stick-to-it-iveness that is going to help get us there."

ROSARIO, MORRIS & JACKSON SIGN WITH RUTGERS

Rutgers announced Nov. 14 that Mike Rosario (Jersey City, N.J./St. Anthony's), Christian Morris (Bronx, N.Y./South Kent School) and Patrick Jackson (Brooklyn, N.Y./Boys & Girls) signed National Letters of Intent to compete for the Scarlet Knights. All three signees are rated among the top 25 prospects at their respective positions nationally, including Rosario, who was cited as the country's 18th overall player by ESPN.

"We are very excited about this year's recruiting class," said Hill. "To sign three young men of this caliber out of strong, national programs in the region, goes directly to our philosophy of bringing in the best student-athletes in New Jersey, New York and Philadelphia to build the Rutgers program. We are extremely pleased to welcome them into the Rutgers basketball family.

"Our three signees definitely bring a lot to the table. They all bring something different, but are all high-energy players that have an opportunity to have an impact in our program right away."

The three recruits all hail from the Metro area and will arrive "On The Banks" after competing at some of the nation's most successful and storied programs. St. Anthony's has captured two national championships (1989, 1996), 24 state championships, and nine Tournament of Champions titles under head coach Bob Hurley, Sr. South Kent (Conn.), under the leadership of Raphael Chillois, is ranked No. 6 nationally in the Scout.com 2007-08 preseason prep poll and has produced current NBA players Andray Blatche and Dorell Wright. Boys and Girls, under the direction of Ruth Lovelace, advanced to the PSAL Class AA Championship last year and produced legendary players Lenny Wilkens, Connie Hawkins and Pearl Washington.

"It is significant to bring in players that are extremely well-coached and that have competed against top competition in big games," said Hill. "Young men that play at an elevated level in high school or prep school gain valuable experience that enables them to be more prepared for the BIG EAST."

INMAN TWICE RECOGNIZED ON BIG EAST HONOR ROLL

The BIG EAST Conference has twice recognized junior forward JR Inman on its weekly Honor Roll this season. He was cited on the initial Honor Roll of the 2007-08 campaign (Nov. 19.) after averaging 20.0 points and 8.0 rebounds per game in the first four contests to help lead the Scarlet Knights to a 3-1 record. On Monday, Dec. 31, he again garnered accolades after picking up his fourth double-double of the season (eighth career) with 16 points and 10 rebounds against Manhattan to spark a 73-67 win.

Through the first 16 games, Inman has paced the team in scoring nine times and in rebounding on 11 occasions. He has posted double figures in 14 contests. He ranks 78th nationally (1/10/08) in rebounding and is among the top 15 in the BIG EAST in four statistical categories.

A 2007 Third Team All-Metropolitan selection, Inman is shooting 44.7 percent (85-190) from the field while averaging a team-best 34.2 minutes per contest. He scored a game-high 18 points in 70-64 season-opening win over Tennessee Tech, before posting 21 points and 11 rebounds in 79-67 win over North Dakota State. Inman scored a then career-high 24 points and grabbed nine rebounds in 38 minutes of action in a 73-48 win over North Carolina Central to become the first RU player to post consecutive 20-plus point games since Quincy Douby.

Against Florida, he played a career-high 39 minutes en route to 17 points and seven rebounds. Versus Dartmouth, he had a game-high 12 rebounds. At St. Peter's, he finished with 11 points and 13 rebounds, the sixth double-double of his career. Against Princeton, he had a team-high 16 points and a team-high tying eight rebounds, and he followed that up with a career-high 26 points against Lafayette. He totaled 12 points against Nebraska. In the team's 65-55 win over NJIT, Inman picked up the seventh double-double of his career with 14 points and a team-high 13 rebounds. Facing No. 1 UNC, Inman totaled 10 points. He followed that game with a 15-point performance versus Rider, hitting all three of his three-point attempts.

Inman picked up his fourth double-double of the season with a team-high tying 16 points and a team-high 10 rebounds against Manhattan, and then followed that up with a career-high tying 14 rebounds against USF. Facing No. 7 Georgetown, Inman scored 11 points to lead the team, his 13th game in double-figures this season. He then led the team in scoring (11 points) and rebounding (seven boards) against Providence.

Inman spent this past August in San Francisco performing the rigorous Chameleon Training program. Inman ran in the sand at Baker Beach, dashed up hills with a 60-pound pack on his back, and climbed ropes; all in an effort to improve his strength and agility. He trained for a month in the program with several NBA and college players, including Hilton Armstrong (New Orleans Hornets), Gabe Pruitt (Boston Celtics) and Kareem Rush (Seattle SuperSonics).

Inman, who has come off the bench to provide a spark in the last three contests, has started 61 of 67 career games and ranks 14th all-time at Rutgers with 79 career blocks, 39th all-time with 455 career rebounds, and 22nd all-time with a career rebounding average of 6.8. He has scored in double figures 47 times in his career. The team's top returning player from last season in terms of field goals, free throws, free throw percentage, rebounding, points and scoring average, he was a CollegeInsider.com Freshman All-American and BIG EAST All-Rookie Team selection in 2006.

CHANDLER BLING

Freshman Corey Chandler, a preseason honorable mention freshman All-America selection by CollegeHoops.net, opened his Scarlet career in style, scoring 16 points on seven of nine shooting versus Tennessee Tech, the most points scored by an RU rookie in a season opener since Charles Jones scored 19 in a 70-64 win over Manhattan on Nov. 27, 1993. The Newark native followed with 14 points against North Dakota State and 10 points against North Carolina Central. At Florida, he played a season-high 34 minutes en route to 10 points. At St. Peter's, he scored a team-high 16 points. After a 19 point effort against Lafayette, Chandler scored a career-high 25 at Nebraska, the most points scored by a true freshman since Quincy Douby scored 28 in a 76-71 NIT victory over Temple on March 17, 2004.

2007-08 RUTGERS MEN'S BASKETBALL GAME NOTES

He followed that performance with a team-high 15 points against NJIT, including a career-high 9-of-9 from the free throw line. He then led RU in scoring with 23 against No. 1 UNC, and earned a spot on the BIG EAST Weekly Honor Roll. Chandler, who is the first freshman to score in double-figures in his first four games since Earl Johnson accomplished the feat in 1996-97, is 12th in the BIG EAST in steals and ranked 28th in scoring.

Against the Gators, Chandler was joined in double figures by Mike Coburn, who also posted 10 points. It marked the first time that a pair of freshmen scored in double digits since JR Inman and Anthony Farmer each posted 11 as rookies in a 78-68 overtime win at DePaul on January 16, 2006.

Chandler returned to action against Georgetown after missing three games with a right foot injury. He finished with six points and six rebounds in 16 minutes of action.

MAN IN THE MIDDLE

Hamady Ndiaye, who is second in the BIG EAST and ninth nationally (1/10/08) in blocked shots, has blocked four or more shots nine times this season. Ndiaye has blocked 55 shots this season, breaking his own record for the 17th-best single-season total in RU history. His total is presently tied for the fifth most in the nation. Ndiaye has already passed his last season total in points (77 in 06-07; 80 in 07-08), rebounds (85 in 06-07; 94 in 07-08), field goals (28 in 06-07; 31 in 07-08) and blocks (49 in 06-07; 55 in 07-08).

Ndiaye plays an average of 20.5 minutes per game, averaging 5.0 points, 5.9 rebounds, and 3.4 blocks. If Ndiaye played 30 minutes per game, he would average 7.3 points, 8.6 rebounds, and 5.0 blocks. If Ndiaye played 40 minutes a contest, he would average 9.8 points, 11.5 rebounds, and 6.7 blocks.

ON THE FARMER

Junior guard Anthony Farmer registered double figures in a career-high five consecutive games between Dec. 13, 2007 and Jan. 2, 2008. After a 10-point performance at NJIT, he scored 17 against No. 1-ranked UNC before posting a career-best 18 points at home versus Rider. On Dec. 29, Farmer tallied 16 in RU's 73-67 win over Manhattan, and then followed that up with a team-leading 14 against USF. After scoring nine against Georgetown, Farmer finished with 10 points against Providence for his 11th double-digit scoring output of the season. He is averaging 13.4 points per game in the last seven contests.

Farmer leads the team with 31 assists on the season. He is ranked 13th in the BIG EAST with a .787 free throw percentage. He is especially clutch with under 3:00 minutes on the game clock, shooting 13-16 from the charity stripe. He has started 74 of 76 career games and ranks 21st all-time at Rutgers with 243 assists. Farmer has scored in double figures 11 times this season and 31 times in his career.

RE-JOYNING THE TEAM TO BRING SENIOR LEADERSHIP

Fifth-year senior Byron Joynes has returned to captain the Scarlet Knights after missing the 2006-07 campaign with a foot injury. The Baltimore native, who is considered one of the top defenders of the post position in the BIG EAST Conference, has persevered through multiple injuries during his tenure "On The Banks." He has competed in 104 career games and ranks 17th all-time at Rutgers with 64 career blocks and is 37th place in the school books with 477 career rebounds. Joynes, who is the lone senior on the RU roster, has improved his strength, agility and conditioning exponentially since arriving on campus as a freshman weighing 310 pounds. Joynes, who has 54 career starts to his credit, has come off the bench in the first sixteen games. He has grabbed 10 or more rebounds 12 times in his career. He has drawn a team-high 12 charges this season.

ROOKIE KNIGHTS

Rutgers' four-player 2007 recruiting class arrived in Piscataway with a regional flavor and an abundance of national accolades. Newark native Corey Chandler was a Rivals four star recruit rated as the nation's 10th-best point guard and 62nd overall prospect. Scout.com graded him as a four star prospect and the 12th-rated point guard nationally. Cited as the 55th overall prospect in the country by Hoop Scoop and 77th overall by The Sporting News/Rise magazine, Chandler was also the 12th-rated point guard prospect nationally by Scouts, Inc. Mount Vernon (N.Y.) native Mike Coburn was a scout.com three star prospect rated as the No. 19 point guard in the country. A Rivals three star recruit rated as the 43rd point guard prospect nationally by Scouts, Inc., Coburn was cited by Hoop Scoop as the No. 77 overall recruit nationally. Philadelphia native Earl Pettis was a scout.com three-star prospect cited as the 37th-ranked small forward nationally. A Rivals three star prospect, he was rated as the nation's 21st-best fifth-year player by Hoop Scoop. Sharpshooter guard Justin Sofman was an All-New England selection as a postgraduate at St. Thomas More School. A West Milford (N.J.) HS grad, he was named one of the top five shooters in the state by NJHoops.com as a senior.

A NEW JERSEY PROGRAM

Rutgers is the State University of New Jersey and the 2007-08 Scarlet Knight roster is loaded with home grown talent from the Garden State. The 13-player roster features 10 student-athletes that played high school or junior college hoops in New Jersey. Thomas Askew (Passaic C.C.), Corey Chandler (East Side HS), Anthony Farmer (St. Augustine's Prep), Kofi Genfi (Sayreville War Memorial HS), Jaron Griffin (Manchester Township HS), JR Inman (St. Joseph's-Montvale HS), Hamady Ndiaye (Life Center Academy), Courtney Nelson (Bloomfield Tech), Charlie Rigoglioso (Wayne Valley HS), Justin Sofman (West Milford HS). In addition, eleven players live within an hour's drive from Rutgers, including Mike Coburn (Mount Vernon, N.Y.) and Earl Pettis (Philadelphia, Pa.).

The coaching also has a distinct N.J. flavor. Head coach Fred Hill hails from Verona, N.J. and played point guard at Montclair State. Assistant coach Craig Carter is a Rutgers letterwinner, who ranks in the top ten all-time in both assists and steals. Darren Savino played prep hoops under Bob Hurley, Sr. at Saint Anthony's before competing at Jersey City State. Director of Basketball Operations Dennis Gregory is also a New Jersey native and former high school coach the Garden State.

LOCAL PRODUCTS WALK-ON

Among the seven newcomers that are listed on the 2007-08 Rutgers roster are three local walk-ons. Paterson, N.J. native Thomas Askew, A 2007 NJCAA Academic All-American, arrives after playing two seasons at Passaic C.C. Freshman forward Kofi Genfi was a two-time Greater Middlesex County All-White Division selection at Sayreville War Memorial HS. Freshman guard Charlie Rigoglioso was a two-time All-Passaic selection by both the Bergen Record and Herald News at Wayne Valley HS.

WHAT I DID LAST SUMMER

Forward Jaron Griffin was part of a trio of Rutgers men's basketball players that represented the Scarlet Knights overseas this past summer. The junior was a standout performer on the East Coast All-Stars 10-day tour of Holland and Belgium, which featured seven contests in a span of seven days. He averaged 18.9 point per game, including 27 points per game in the final three contests, which produced a pair of East Coast victories. Junior guard Anthony Farmer was also a member of the All-Stars, while freshman guard Mike Coburn competed on an 11-day tour of China with his Mount Vernon HS squad. Coburn's high school squad split its stay between Beijing and Shanghai, played three exhibition games and visit attractions such as the Great Wall, Tiananmen Square and the Forbidden City. Among the exhibitions were contests against Han Mo, the reigning Shanghai city champions, and a junior national team.

FORMER RU PLAYERS ABROAD

2006-07 senior Adrian Hill signed a professional contract this summer to play overseas. A forward who ranks ninth all time at Rutgers with a .521 (222-426) career field goal percentage, he inked a deal with Obila De Avila of Spain's LEB2 League. Hill joined a multitude of Scarlet Knights competing professionally overseas. Other former Rutgers cagers utilizing their visas on the hardwood include Jerome Coleman (Brest/France), Jeff Greer (Nancy/France), Robert Hodgson (Thor Thor/Iceland), Herve Lamizana (Shangdong L./China), Joel Salvi (Leagea/Italy), Ricky Shields (TED Koleji/Turkey) and Alvydas Tenys (Pirta/Estonia) The most notable Scarlet Knight playing professionally is NBA first round draft choice Quincy Douby, who played in 42 games as a rookie with the Sacramento Kings in 2006-07. In addition, 2006-07 senior Marquis Webb was recently drafted by the Anaheim Arsenal of NBA D-League.

A COMMITMENT TO COMMUNITY

The Rutgers men's basketball program takes a proactive approach to civic responsibility under head coach Fred Hill. This past Christmas, players distributed toys that the program collected to children in the Piscataway area via Toys For Tots. Among Hill's recent community initiatives was the "Frankie and Freddie's Skills and Drills Day," which ran a free clinic for children via sponsorships while raising funds to renovate the playground at Sea Girt Elementary School. He is also a strong supporter of the Jimmy V Foundation, founded by ESPN and the late Jim Valvano, who co-captained the 1966-67 Rutgers squad. Proceeds from Hill's annual charity golf tournament benefit the foundation.

This past season, men's basketball players visited the High Road School, a special education facility for children with learning disabilities and emotional and social needs. They also interacted with disabled children and young adults at Matheny Medical and Education Center. The team participated in the national "Read Across America" program and read to children at local elementary schools. In addition, every player is assigned a pen pal at a local elementary school via "Scarlet Letters," a program sponsored by men's basketball that further enables the Scarlet Knights to serve as positive role models in the surrounding communities.

EXCELLING IN THE CLASSROOM

All six seniors on the 2006-07 Rutgers roster earned diplomas. The Scarlet Knights had the highest number of graduates in the BIG EAST. Every player presently on the roster is on schedule, or ahead of schedule, to graduate. The team has steadily increased its GPA in all three of Coach Hill's semesters as head coach. Rutgers posted a 3.3 team grade point average during the summer of 2007. Two Scarlet Knights were member of the 2007 BIG EAST Academic All-Star Team.

CELEBRATING GARDEN STATE BASKETBALL

Rutgers men's basketball celebrates New Jersey's rich coaching tradition on the hardwood by hosting an annual clinic at the RAC in conjuncture with the NJSIAA and NJSCA. The past October, the Scarlet Knights hosted the New Jersey Greats Of The Game coaches clinic. Among the legendary Garden State hardwood mentors that participated were Tom Brennan, Patty Coyle, Mike Fratello, Brian Hill and Bob Hurley, Sr. In 2006, the New Jersey Legends Of Basketball clinic was a resounding success and offered insight and instruction from Hubie Brown, Pete Caril, Bob Farrell and Rollie Massimino.

"New Jersey basketball possesses and enables a history of insight and success that is simply unmatched," said Fred Hill. "We are very proud to facilitate the sharing of this legacy between the coaches that helped create it, with the coaches that maintain it through today's student-athletes."

NEW JERSEY'S COACHING FAMILY

Coaching is in Fred Hill's bloodlines as his father, Fred Hill Sr., is the long-time, highly-successful head baseball coach at Rutgers. The duo is the only father-son combo to serve as head coaches at the same university at the Division I level. This past season, the elder Hill was named the ABCA East Region Division I

Coch of The Year after leading his team to a BIG EAST title and the NCAA Regional. In addition, his uncle, Brian Hill, has been a head coach on both the collegiate and NBA levels, and is currently an assistant with the New Jersey Nets. Hill worked under his uncle Brian as an assistant at Lehigh in 1982-83.

RUTGERS ATHLETICS: WHERE SUCCESS HAPPENS

The Rutgers Athletic Department was recognized for its overall athletic success in 2006-07 by Sports Illustrated on Campus, which ranked the Scarlet Knights the nation's 17th best program in its all sport rankings. Seven Rutgers athletic teams were nationally ranked in 2006-07.

THE BIG EAST - THE NATION'S PREMIER BASKETBALL LEAGUE

- A BIG EAST team has made the Final Four 13 times in the league's 28-year history. A BIG EAST team has played in the national title game 10 times. Three BIG EAST squads have been NCAA champions in the last nine years.
- With two Sweet 16 teams in 2006-07, the BIG EAST has had 15 teams reach the regional semifinal round over the last five seasons, the most of any conference in that span.
- Fifteen of the 16 current BIG EAST members have participated in the Final Four at least once in their histories. Current BIG EAST members have made a total of 41 appearances in the Final Four.
- The BIG EAST has always been considered a leader in television. Twelve of the 16 BIG EAST institutions are located in the top 34 media markets in the country. With its newest members, BIG EAST markets contain almost one fourth of all television households in the U.S.
- The 2007-08 BIG EAST men's basketball schedule includes more telecasts on national networks than ever before. As part of the BIG EAST's new agreements with its television partners, all 144 regular-season league games will be televised. In total, 57 of the 155 games (or 38 percent) played between BIG EAST teams will be on national television.

ABOUT RUTGERS UNIVERSITY

Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey, is the premier public university of New Jersey and one of the oldest and most highly regarded institutions of higher education in the nation. Chartered in 1766 as Queen's College, the nation's eighth institution of higher learning, Rutgers is one of only nine colonial colleges established before the American Revolution. One of the nation's leading research universities with an international reputation for excellence, Rutgers is a unique resource for New Jersey. It is the only state institution with the combined quality, scale, and range of resources to educate the next generation of leaders.

Rutgers-New Brunswick has grown from a small colonial college to a thriving university center. Today, it is the largest of Rutgers' three regional campuses, offering a medley of environments, from peaceful open greens to a bustling downtown. In addition to the connections made on campus, a Rutgers degree connects its graduates to a network of alumni that exceeds 350,000 people in all 50 states and on six continents. Over 200,000 alums live in New Jersey.

A "throwback, old-school coach," Fred Hill is in his second season directing Rutgers' men's basketball program. The Verona, N.J. native enters 2007-08 with 26 seasons of Division I coaching experience and eight BIG EAST postseason appearances on his resume.

Born and raised in the Garden State, Hill recognized a life-long dream when he was named head coach of the Scarlet Knights on March 27, 2006.

"Our program will be built on basic characteristics," said Hill. "We're going to be known for our toughness, our togetherness, our hard work, our passion and our pride in Rutgers University. Players need to be put in the right role. Ideally, with the personnel we bring in, I'd like to get up and down the floor on offense and use multiple defensive looks, but again, it comes down to putting guys in the right position to be successful."

At the core of Hill's coaching and personal philosophy is a commitment to community service. Echoing John Wooden's famous quote that "You can't live a perfect day without doing something for someone who will never be able to repay you," he takes a proactive approach to civic responsibility. Among his recent community initiatives was the "Frankie and Freddie's Skills and Drills Day," which ran a free clinic for children via sponsorships while raising funds to renovate the playground at Sea Girt Elementary School. He is also a strong supporter of the Jimmy V Foundation, founded by ESPN and the late Jim Valvano, who co-captained the 1966-67 Rutgers squad. Proceeds from Hill's annual charity golf tournament benefit the foundation.

Rutgers men's basketball players are active in community outreach under Hill's leadership. Recently, student-athletes visited the High Road School, a special education facility for children with learning disabilities and emotional and social needs. They also interacted with disabled children and young adults at Matheny Medical and Education Center. This past season, the team participated in the nation "Read Across America" program and read to children at local elementary schools. In addition, every player is assigned a pen pal at a local elementary school via "Scarlet Letters," a program sponsored by men's basketball that further enables the Scarlet Knights to serve as positive role models in the surrounding communities.

Hill, 48, was instrumental in the New Jersey Greats of the Game coaches clinic this past October and the New Jersey Legends of Basketball clinic in 2006. The 2007 clinic featured legendary Garden State hardwood mentors Tom Brennan, Patty Coyle, Mike Fratello, Brian Hill and Bob Hurley, Sr. The inaugural event offered insight and instruction from Hubie Brown, Pete Carril, Bob Farrell and Rollie Massimino. Both clinics were hosted in conjunction with the NJSIAA and NJSCA and were attended by more than 500 coaches.

The Legends clinic was not the only camp to achieve success under Hill. This past summer, Scarlet Knight clinics attracted over 1,000 scholastic players and more than 100 high school teams.

Since taking the helm "On The Banks," Hill has made great strides in improving team resources and operations. A locker room renovation, the hiring of a strength and conditioning specialist exclusively for basketball and streamlined team travel have been achieved during his short tenure. The Scarlet Knights now charter to away contests, enabling players to spend more time in the classroom.

Widely regarded as one of the Eastern basketball's top recruiters, Hill has helped recruit and mentor seven Big East Student-Athletes that have gone on to the NBA careers since 2001. Included in the group is former Rutgers guard and 2006 first round pick Quincy Douby. In addition, three 2007-08 freshmen were cited among the highest-rated recruits at their positions nationally by numerous recruiting services.

Prior to being named the program's 16th head coach, Hill served as Associate Head Coach for the Scarlet Knights during the 2005-06 season. In this capacity, he earned his first courtside victory at the helm. He led Rutgers to a 91-84 win over Marquette on Feb. 12, 2006, while serving as acting head coach that afternoon.

Before Rutgers, Hill spent four seasons as an assistant coach at Villanova University, including the final two as associate head coach. He was a major factor in the recruitment of Villanova's highly-acclaimed recruiting classes of 2002 and 2003, and played a key role in on-court teaching and in-game strategy. Villanova reached the Sweet 16 in 2005 and advanced to the Elite Eight in 2006.

Hill served three seasons (1998-2001) as an assistant coach at Seton Hall University, where he was part of the staff that helped secure the Pirates to the Sweet 16 in 2000 and secure the top-ranked recruiting class in the nation that year.

Prior to his stint at Seton Hall, Hill served seven years as an assistant coach at Fairleigh Dickinson University, including his final three seasons as associate head coach. In Hill's final season at FDU, the Knights were 23-7 and captured the NEC title. The team advanced to the NCAA tournament to face No. 2 seed Connecticut. Guard Elijah Allen scored 43 points, the third highest output all-time in the East Region, but the 15th-seeded Knights dropped a hard-fought 93-85 decision to the Huskies.

Hill has also served as an assistant coach at the University of Maine (1988-91), Marquette University (1986-88), Rider College (1983-86) and Lehigh University (1982-83). His first college coaching position was at his alma mater, Montclair State College, in 1981-82.

Hill is a 1977 graduate of Verona High School and a 1981 graduate of Montclair State College. At MSC, he was an All-Conference guard as a senior on a team that reached the NCAA Division III Tournament. He earned a degree in business administration.

Coaching is in Hill's bloodlines as his father, Fred Hill Sr., is the long-time, highly-successful head baseball coach at Rutgers. The duo is the only father-son combo to serve as head coaches at the same university at the Division I level. This past season, the elder Hill was named the ABCA East Region Division I Coach of The Year after leading his team to a Big East title and the NCAA Regional. In addition, his uncle, Brian Hill, has been a head coach on both the collegiate and NBA levels, and is currently an assistant with the New Jersey Nets. The Hills are often referred to as "New Jersey's Coaching Family."

Competed with the East Coast All-Stars during a tour of Belgium and the Netherlands in the summer of 2007 and led the squad with an 18.9 scoring average in seven contests...Most memorable moment on the hardwood was winning consecutive championships in high school...Likes to watch cartoons, especially Sponge Bob Square Pants...List his biggest motivation as his mother, who raised him as a single mother and always told him to try his best in everything that he did...Pre-game ritual is to listen to music, but if he had a good game prior, does the exact same thing while preparing for the next contest.

#15 JR Inman

His father, who played in the NFL with the San Francisco 49ers, was his first basketball coach...First started playing basketball when he was eight years old...Thanks his father for teaching him to take the game seriously...Former Rutgers star and current Sacramento Kings guard Quincy Douby is his favorite player...People sometimes say he looks like actor Will Smith...Favorite show is The Fresh Prince of Bel Air (starring Will Smith)...Wants to write a book and already has the title: When the Air Comes Out of the Ball...Spent this past August in San Francisco performing the rigorous Chameleon Training program...Ran in the sand at Baker Beach, dashed up hills with a 60-pound pack on his back, and climbed ropes; all in an effort to improve his strength and agility...Trained for a month in the program with several NBA and college players, including Hilton Armstrong (New Orleans Hornets), Gabe Pruitt (Boston Celtics) and Kareem Rush (Seattle SuperSonics)...Pursuing a degree in communication.

#21 Byron Joynes

Goal is to stay injury-free this season...Embraces his role as captain and senior leader...Played with Denver Nuggets star Carmelo Anthony at Towson Catholic HS in Baltimore, Md...Played against LeBron James while at Oak Hill Academy and still remembers James jumping so high that his head was over the rim...Favorite player and the person he would most like to meet is Miami Heat center Shaquille O'Neal...Pre-game ritual is to listen to music and take a short nap...Pulp Fiction, starring Samuel L. Jackson, is his favorite movie...Majoring in criminal justice with a minor in Africana Studies.

#5 Hamady Ndiaye

Became a basketball player in his home nation of Senegal when he was 16 years old...The thing he found most unusual about the United States was the necessity to always have money on you...Best advice he received was to never forget where he came from...Wants to return to Senegal after graduation and try to improve things in his homeland with the education he received in the U.S...Favorite food is fast food double cheeseburgers.

#3 Courtney Nelson

Was a two sport athlete until age 12, when he chose to give up baseball to concentrate on basketball...Best advice came from his father, who said that whatever he wanted, he had to go out and get. He couldn't sit back and wait for people to give it to him...Lists Martin Luther King, Jr. as the person, past or present, that he would most like to meet...Pre-game ritual is to listen to loud, crazy music and eat Swedish fish... People sometimes say he looks like the rapper Fabulous (he does not agree)...Friday starring Ice Cube and Chris Tucker is his favorite movie, he says it is a must see...Allen Iverson is his favorite athlete, because of the energy and heart he plays with...Pursuing a degree in sociology.

#11 Earl Pettis

Started playing basketball because he wanted to be like his older brother and his brother played basketball...Brother played at Rider and then professionally overseas...Favorite moment on the hardwood was winning two Catholic league high school championships in Philadelphia...Best advice he received was to stay humble, stay positive, and stay focused...People sometimes say he resembles Detroit Pistons forward Rasheed Wallace...Is a quiet person who prefers his actions to speak for him on the basketball court.

#10 Charlie Rigoglioso

Is one of seven children...Has five brothers and one sister...Father wrestled at UMass, brother (Matthew) wrestles at Rutgers and another brother (Andrew) is a swimmer at Boston College...Was a three-sport athlete in HS, quarterbacking the football team to a conference title as a senior...Was all-conference in three sports and was also an all-state punter...Best advice comes from his parents, who tell him to do what he loves and not to let people make decisions for him...Pre-game ritual is to listen to music and to dribble the ball certain ways. Says he used to be very superstitious, but had to stop because it became too much.

#24 Justin Sofman

Most memorable moment on the hardwood was freshman year of high school, when he had 27 points versus their biggest rival...Says best advice he received was from Coach Hill, who told him not to quit on things and to push through no matter what...Lists Quincy Douby as his favorite player, because as a shooter, he loved watching Douby shoot...Also follows Kirk Hinrich and people sometimes call him Hinrich...Pre-game rituals change from year to year...Stretches at a certain time every pre-game and take a certain amount of shots from a specific spot on the court...Favorite book is The World According To Garp by John Irving.

SCARLET KNIGHT MENTORS

Each Rutgers player is assigned a former Rutgers men's basketball letterwinner as a mentor. The mentors draw upon their experiences as both students and current professionals to provide each player a valuable resource, both on and off the court, during their tenures "On The Banks."

RUTGERS POSTGAME NOTES

Freshman Corey Chandler scored 16 points, the most points by a rookie in a season opener since Charles Jones scored 19 in a 70-64 win over Manhattan on Nov. 27, 1993.

Rutgers held Tennessee Tech to 33.8 percent from the floor, approximately 10 percentage points better than what it did defensively last season. In 2006-07, the Scarlet Knights defense allowed teams to shoot 43.3 percent from the floor.

Redshirt senior Byron Joynes scored his first basket since the 2005-06 season at the 10:46 mark in the first half. He finished with five points. With 11 rebounds, Joynes jumped two spots from 43rd to 41st place all-time with 396, nine rebounds behind 40th place Eddie Jordan. Joynes' 11 rebound effort marks the 11th time he has had 10 or more rebounds in a game, and the 22nd time he led the team in rebounding.

With 18 points, junior JR Inman picked up his 34th career double-digit scoring game. Inman blocked two shots to give him 70 for his career, seven behind 13th-place Mike Jones.

With two assists, junior Anthony Farmer took sole possession of 23rd-place all-time with 214.

The game marked the 59th career-start for Farmer, the 49th career-start for Inman, the 31st career-start for Griffin and the third career-start for Ndiaye.

RUTGERS POSTGAME NOTES

With 14 points, Corey Chandler became the first rookie to score in double figures in his first two games since Earl Johnson did it against Wagner and No. 1 Cincinnati in the first two games of the 1996-97 season.

JR Inman finished the game with 21 points, tying his career-high in points, set on Nov. 22, 2005 against Delaware State. The junior also had 11 rebounds, the fifth double-double of his career.

With four rebounds in the game, Byron Joynes reached 400 for his career, good for 41st place all-time. At 40th place is Eddie Jordan with 405.

Hamady Ndiaye, Joynes, and Inman each had a block. Ndiaye and Joynes are tied for 21st place with 54 blocks apiece. In 19th place are Lloyd Moore and Lee Perry with 57 career blocks. Inman now has 71 career blocks, good for 14th place, six blocks behind 13th place Mike Jones.

Anthony Farmer scored a basket at the 2:42 mark of the second half to give him eleven points, and to give Rutgers three players in double-figures for the third consecutive game, including the final game of the 2006-07 season.

Farmer's 17 points tied his career-high, most recently accomplished at Seton Hall on Jan. 3, 2007.

The game marked the 60th career-start for Farmer, the 50th career-start for Inman, the 32nd career-start for Griffin and the fourth career-start for Ndiaye.

RUTGERS POSTGAME NOTES

JR Inman established a new career-high with 24 points. His previous career-high was 21, set twice, most recently against North Dakota State. Inman's 24 point effort marked the first time in his career he has back to back games of scoring 20 or more points. He becomes the first Scarlet Knight to score 20 or more points in back to back games since Quincy Douby closed out his career with three straight 30 or more point games in 2005-06.

Inman also tied his career-high of made field goals with eight and set a career-high in minutes played, with 38.

Inman, Jaron Griffin, Anthony Farmer and Corey Chandler all scored in double-figures, marking first time that four players scored in double-digits since Feb. 10, 2007, in a 73-69 win over Cincinnati at the RAC.

Corey Chandler finished the game with 10 points, becoming the first freshman to score in double-figures in his first three games since Earl Johnson accomplished the feat in 1996-97.

Charlie Rigoglioso, Kofi Genfi, and Thomas Askew all saw their first playing time as Scarlet Knights.

The final score of 73-48 was the largest winning margin for Rutgers since its 82-41 victory over St. Thomas Aquinas on Nov. 19, 2006.

RUTGERS POSTGAME NOTES

JR Inman played a career-high 39 minutes en route to his fourth straight double-figure scoring game this season.

Freshman Corey Chandler scored in double-digits (10) for the fourth time in as many games. He was joined by fellow rookie Mike Coburn and junior Anthony Farmer, who also scored 10. It was the highest career output thus far for Coburn.

With Chandler and Coburn both registering double figures, it marked the first time that a pair of freshmen did the honors since JR Inman and Anthony Farmer each scored 11 as rookies in a 78-68 overtime win at DePaul on January 16, 2006.

Rutgers committed just eight turnovers, the second time this season the team had nine or fewer turnovers.

Hamady Ndiaye had four blocks to move into 16th place all-time at RU with 64 career rejections. He has had four or more blocks in three games this season.

Rutgers 1,000-point scorer Don Parsons was in attendance and sat behind the Scarlet Knights' bench. His grandson, Chandler, is a freshman forward for the Gators and scored seven points.

The crowd of 11,522 was the largest to watch the Scarlet Knights since 17,194 witnessed the contest versus Marquette at the Bradley Center last season (2/7/07).

RUTGERS POSTGAME NOTES

The nine point halftime Dartmouth lead marked the largest halftime deficit Rutgers has been able to overcome since they came back from an 11-point halftime deficit and defeated Charlotte 73-71 on Nov. 22, 2004.

Anthony Farmer has scored in double-figures in four straight games, matching his career-high. He previously scored in double-figures in four straight games during the 2005-06 season.

Hamady Ndiaye set a new career-high with nine rebounds. His previous career-high was eight rebounds, set twice, most recently against North Carolina Central on Nov. 12, 2007.

Ndiaye's four blocks marks the fourth time this season he has had four or more blocks in a game, and the ninth time in his career.

Ndiaye moves into 15th place on the Rutgers all-time blocked shots list with 68. In 14th place with 75 blocks is teammate JR Inman.

Byron Joynes had a career-high four blocks against Dartmouth, marking the first time this season and the sixth time in his career he blocked three or more shots.

Joynes grabbed eight rebounds, giving him 416 for his career and moving him into 39th place on the Rutgers all-time rebounds list. Next up is Chuck Weiler with 443.

RUTGERS POSTGAME NOTES

The game was the first college basketball game in the JC Armory since Saint Peter's played there in 1974-75.

Freshman Corey Chandler scored 16 points, matching his season and career-high. He previously scored 16 points against Tennessee Tech in the first game of the season.

Junior forward JR Inman finished with 11 points and 13 rebounds, the sixth double-double of his career and his second this season.

Sophomore center Hamady Ndiaye scored a season-high 10 points in just 14 minutes, marking the second time in his career he has reached double-digits in scoring.

The Scarlet Knights have seen three or more players score in double-figures in four of their six games.

Redshirt senior Byron Joynes had 10 rebounds and one block, moving him to a tie for 19th place on the Rutgers all-time blocked shots list with 59. The game also marked the 12th time in his career and second time this season Joynes has pulled down 10 or more rebounds.

Just seven players competed for the Scarlet Knights. It marked the fewest players utilized in a game for RU since seven also played versus No. 6 Boston College on February 16, 2005. Byron Joynes played 31 minutes in that game and grabbed 12 rebounds.

RUTGERS POSTGAME NOTES

With 32 minutes against Princeton, sophomore Hamady Ndiaye set a career-high in minutes played. His previous high was 26 minutes at North Carolina on Dec. 28, 2006.

Ndiaye's eight rebounds tied for the team lead against Princeton. It marked the first time this season and fourth in his career that he has led the team in rebounding in a game. He was also one rebound shy of his career high of nine, which he set against Dartmouth (11/20) earlier this season.

Ndiaye also finished with three blocked shots against the Tigers. It is the fifth time this season and 10th time for his career that he has recorded three or more blocks in a game.

Junior JR Inman tied his career-high with with three steals against Princeton. It marked the fourth time in his career that he has collected three steals in a game. The other three occasions came during his freshman season in 2005-06.

With 7.4 seconds left in the game, junior Anthony Farmer connected on two free throws. He is currently 7-8 from the charity stripe in the final three minutes of a game, leading all Scarlet Knights in that category.

Freshman Justin Sofman saw the first playing time of his Scarlet Knight career, entering the game at the 12:57 mark of the first half. Sofman scored his first points with a three pointer on his first career attempt.

RUTGERS POSTGAME NOTES

Rutgers is now 6-0 in the friendly confines of the Louis Brown Athletic Center, their best start at home since the 2005-06 season, when RU won its first seven games at the RAC.

Rutgers finished with 90 points, their highest scoring total this season, and the most points scored in a regulation game since Feb. 12, 2006, when RU defeated Marquette 91-84 at the RAC.

Rutgers made 11 three-point field goals, a season-high, and the most three pointers in a game since they connected on 12 at Penn State on March 14, 2006. The Scarlet connected on 30 field goals, a season-high, and the most field goals made since Jan. 31, 2007, when RU hit 34 against West Virginia at the RAC.

Five players scored in double-figures for the Scarlet Knights. JR Inman scored a career-high 26, Corey Chandler finished with a career-high 19, Coburn had a career-high 15, Anthony Farmer 14, and Jaron Griffin tallied 11. The game marks the first time five players have scored in double figures since a 74-70 double-overtime victory over Seton Hall on Jan. 27, 2007, at the RAC.

Sophomore Hamady Ndiaye (Dakar, Senegal) finished with six blocks, tying his season-high. He also had six blocked shots against North Carolina Central on Nov. 12, 2007. Ndiaye is now in 13th place on the Rutgers all-time blocked shot list, passing Mike Jones (14th place) and teammate JR Inman (15th place).

RUTGERS POSTGAME NOTES

Freshman Corey Chandler finished with 25 points, a career-high. He scored the most points as a true freshman since Quincy Douby scored 28 as a true freshman in a 76-71 NIT victory over Temple on March 17, 2004. Chandler was 10-of-20 from the floor, marking career-highs in field goals and field goal attempts.

Chandler grabbed a career-high six rebounds, including a career-high four offensive boards.

Chandler blocked Steve Harley's shot with 14:39 to go in the second half for his first blocked shot of the season.

Chandler tied his season-high with 34 minutes played. He had accomplished the feat twice, most recently at St. Peter's on Nov. 25, 2007.

Junior JR Inman grabbed four rebounds, giving him 401 for his career. He is now in 42nd place on the Rutgers all-time rebounds list.

Inman tied his season-high with 39 minutes played. He previously accomplished the feat at Florida on Nov. 17, 2007.

Sophomore Hamady Ndiaye blocked five shots to give him 83 for his career, moving him into a tie for 11th place on the Rutgers all-time blocked shot list.

Redshirt senior Byron Joynes grabbed eight rebounds, giving him 440 for his career, three boards away from tying Chuck Weiler for 38th place on the Rutgers all-time rebounding list.

RUTGERS POSTGAME NOTES

With 14 points and 13 rebounds, junior JR Inman picked up his third double-double of the season and the seventh of his career.

The 13 rebounds for Inman ties his season-high, set previously at St. Peter's on Nov. 25, and is one shy of his career-high of 14, set at Villanova on Feb. 24, 2007.

With 14 points, Inman has passed 700 points for his career. He now has 701.

Freshman Corey Chandler was a career-best 9-of-9 from the free throw line. That marks the most free throws made since Quincy Douby went 10-of-12 in an 82-78 victory over Seton Hall at the RAC on Jan. 7, 2006.

Chandler scored in double-figures for the eighth time this season and led RU in scoring for the third time this season.

Freshman Mike Coburn had a career-high five assists. His previous high was four against North Carolina Central on Nov. 12.

Sophomore Hamady Ndiaye had four blocks, marking the seventh game this season he has accomplished the feat, and the third consecutive game. Ndiaye stands in 11th place on the Rutgers all-time blocked shot list with 87 career blocks, three short of Rashod Kent and 10th place.

Junior Anthony Farmer had three steals, tying his season-high. He previously accomplished the feat against North Carolina Central on Nov. 12.

RUTGERS POSTGAME NOTES

There were 8,312 fans were in attendance, marking the highest attendance since Feb. 23, 2002, when 8,729 fans watched Rutgers defeat Seton Hall 66-60. The game marked the 74th sellout in the history of the RAC.

Freshman Corey Chandler narrowly missed matching his career-high as he finished with 23 points (25 vs. Nebraska, Dec. 9); however he did set a career mark with eight rebounds. His previous high was six which he also set on Dec. 9, against Nebraska. Chandler led RU in rebounding for the first time in his career.

Junior Anthony Farmer tied his career-high with 17 points. He has accomplished the feat four times; previously he scored 17 against North Dakota State on Nov. 11.

Sophomore Hamady Ndiaye finished with four blocks, giving him 91 for his career. The 91 blocks rank 10th on the Rutgers all-time blocked shot list and he is six away from the ninth place leader (Eugene Dabney, 97).

Freshman guard Earl Pettis set a career in points (six), rebounds (six), steals (two) and minutes (25). He also tied his career high with six field goal attempts.

RUTGERS POSTGAME NOTES

Junior guard Anthony Farmer scored career-high 18 points. His previous career-high was 17, set four times, most recently against No. 1 North Carolina on Dec. 16.

Farmer finished with three assists to move into 22nd place on the Rutgers all-time assist list with 236. Next up in 21st place is Mike Jones with 238.

Farmer played a season-high 39 minutes. His previous high was 34 against No.1 North Carolina on Dec. 16.

In his second start of the season, freshman Mike Coburn grabbed a career-high seven rebounds, passing his previous high of five, set on Dec. 13, at NJIT.

Sophomore center Hamady Ndiaye tied his season-high with six blocked shots, a feat he had achieved twice, most recently on Dec. 5 against Lafayette. The six blocked shots for Ndiaye marked the ninth time this season he has blocked four or more shots, and the fifth consecutive game he has achieved the feat.

Ndiaye is now tied with Eugene Dabney for ninth place on the Rutgers all-time blocked shot list with 97 career blocks. Next up in eighth place is Gene Armstead with 100 career blocks.

As a tea, Rutgers drew five charges. Senior Byron Joynes and Farmer each drew two, while freshman Justin Sofman drew one.

The Broncos' Jason Thompson was held to a season-low 12 points. His previous low was 13 set on Nov. 10 against Murray State.

RUTGERS POSTGAME NOTES

Rutgers finished with a field goal percentage of 47.2 (25-53), its highest field-goal percentage this season. The previous high was 46.2 percent (30-65) in its 90-79 win over Lafayette on Dec. 05 at the RAC. The Scarlet Knights are 6-0 when outshooting their opponent, and 7-1 when shooting between 40 and 49 percent.

Sophomore Hamady Ndiaye blocked two shots, giving him 50 on the year, passing his last season total of 49. The 50 blocks for Ndiaye marks the 17th-best single-season block total in RU history.

Junior Anthony Farmer tallied two assists, giving him 238 for his career and tying him with Mike Jones for 21st on Rutgers all-time assist list.

Farmer finished with 16 points, the fourth straight game he has scored in double-figures. He has not scored in double-figures in four straight games since the 2005-06 season. Farmer has never scored in double-figures in five straight games.

Senior Byron Joynes drew three charges, giving him 11 for the season. Joynes leads the team in charges drawn.

Junior Courtney Nelson finished with 12 points, a season-high. Nelson's scoring total marks the first time he has scored in double-figures since he scored 12 points against Notre Dame on March 3, 2007, the final game of the 2006-07 season.

Freshman Earl Pettis scored seven points, a career-high. His previous high was six, set on Dec. 16 against No. 1 UNC.

RUTGERS POSTGAME NOTES

Junior Anthony Farmer finished with a team-leading 14 points, giving him double-figures in a career-high five consecutive games. Farmer is averaging 15.0 points per game in that stretch.

Farmer connected on a career-high tying seven field goals while attempting a career-high 15 shots.

Farmer tallied one assist, giving him 239 for his career and sole possession of 21st place on Rutgers all-time assist list.

In his third consecutive start and his fourth of the season, freshman Mike Coburn played a career-high 31 minutes. His previous high was 29, set twice, most recently against Lafayette on Dec. 5, 2007.

Junior JR Inman tied his career-high with 14 rebounds. He previously accomplished the feat at Villanova on Feb. 24, 2007.

Inman now ranks 39th on the Rutgers all-time rebounding list with 446 career boards. He trails teammate Byron Joynes, who is in 38th place with 467 career rebounds.

Inman increased his career-rebounding average to 6.9, putting him in sole possession of 22nd place on the Rutgers all-time career-rebounding average list. In 21st place is Hollis Copeland with a career-average of 7.0 rebounds per game.

Sophomore Hamady Ndiaye, who leads the BIG EAST in blocked shots and is ranked seventh nationally in the latest NCAA Rankings, blocked three shots to give him 102 for his career. He is now in eighth place on the Rutgers all-time blocked shot list. Ndiaye has blocked 53 blocks this season, passing his own mark of 49 for the 17th-best single-season total in RU history.

RUTGERS POSTGAME NOTES

Rutgers outrebounded the Hoyas by 17 (43-26), marking the second highest rebounding differential for the Scarlet Knights this season (18, 49-31 against Dartmouth on Nov. 20). The 17-rebound differential marks the highest for an opponent against Georgetown this season. Their previous high came against Memphis (13, 43-30) on Dec. 22, 2007.

Rutgers has now outrebounded its opponent nine times this season.

Rutgers finished with 22 offensive rebounds, tying its season-high, previously set on Nov. 25, 2007, against St. Peter's.

Georgetown finished with 58 points, marking the second lowest point total for the Hoyas this season (57 against Ball State on Nov. 21, 2007). Hoya center Roy Hibbert was held to six points, tying his season-low, previously set on Dec. 22 against Memphis.

Sophomore Hamady Ndiaye finished with two blocked shots to give him 55 blocks on the season, tying him with Eric Clark (1995-96) for the 16th best single-season blocked shot record in RU history. Ndiaye now has 104 blocked shots for his career, good for seventh place on Rutgers all-time blocked shot list.

Senior Byron Joynes finished with six rebounds, jumping two spots to 36th place on the Rutgers all-time rebounds list with 473.

Freshman Earl Pettis tied his career-high in steals with two, previously set against No. 1 North Carolina on Dec. 16, 2007.
