RUTGERS SCARLET KNIGHTS (3-0) vs ST. BONAVENTURE BONNIES (2-1)

SUNDAY • NOVEMBER 23, 2008 • 2:00 P.M. ET
THE RAC (8,000) • PISCATAWAY, N.J.

Radio: The contest will be broadcast live on the Rutgers Radio Network, WOR 710 AM in New York City and WCTC 1450 AM in New Brunswick. Chris Carlin will serve as play-by-play announcer and Dick Lloyd will provide commentary. WRSU 88.7 FM will also broadcast the game.
TV: The game will be televised live on SportsNet New York (SNY) with Rob Kennedy and Kevin Burkhardt calling the action.

Rutgers plays its fourth and final game in the Garden State Challenge to open its season, when it welcomes St. Bonaventure to the Louis Brown Athletic Center this Sunday afternoon for a 2:00 p.m. tip-off. Twenty-five minutes after the contest concludes (approximately 4:00 p.m.), Marist and Delaware take to the RAC hardwood in the GSC finale. Tickets for the Rutgers game are good for both contests of the doubleheader. Sunday is also Kids Day. Children 12 and under are admitted free with the purchase of an adult admission. A kids play zone will also be set up two hours prior to tip-off.

Rutgers is 3-0 for the second consecutive season under head coach Fred Hill after a 69-55 home win over Robert Morris this past Friday evening. Freshman guard Mike Rosario shot 10 of 18 from the field, including five of 12 from behind the arc while playing a game-high 35 minutes. It marked the most points for an RU freshman since Quincy Douby dropped 35 in an NIT semifinal game against Iowa State in 2004. Defensively, RU turned in another strong performance, limiting the Colonials to 34.5 percent (19-55) shooting. Junior center Hamady Ndiaye was once again a force, grabbing 10 rebounds, while registering eight blocked shots for the second time in as many home games this season. Rosario is averaging 20.3 points per game to rank sixth in the BIG EAST Conference in scoring. Ndiaye leads the league in blocks, with an average of 6.33 rejections per contest.

Rutgers is 21-17 all-time against St. Bonaventure, including a 12-5 mark at home. The teams previously competed annually, when both were members of the Atlantic 10 Conference from 1979-80 to 1994-95.

The Bonnies are 2-1 after suffering a 85-81 defeat to Delaware Friday evening at the RAC in the GSC. Junior guards Jonathan Hall and Chris Matthews scored 24 points and 18 points, respectively, as SBU lost despite shooting 54.0 percent (34-63). UD made 11 three-pointers to earn the win. On the season, Matthews is averaging 19.0 points per game, while Hall is averaging 18.7.

QUICK HITS

- Sunday's game marks the first time the Rutgers men's basketball program has hit the hardwood on November 23.
- A victory over St. Bonaventure would provide Rutgers its first 4-0 start since the 2000-01 season.
- RU is 179-166 all-time against teams in the Atlantic 10 Conference. The Scarlet Knights have faced all current A-10 teams except Dayton and Richmond. RU was a member of the A-10 from 1976-77 to 1994-95. The Scarlet Knights won the A-10 regular season title in 1990-91 and won A-10 Tournament titles in 1979 and 1989.
- In the season opening win over Marist, Rutgers' 16 blocks tied the school record. The Scarlet Knights also had 16 blocks in an 85-51 win over St. Bonaventure on Jan. 16, 1992.
- Three St. Bonaventure players, junior forward Maurice Thomas, sophomore guard Malcolm Eleby and junior guard Lewis Leonard, hail from Philadelphia, Pa., the hometown of RU guard Earl Pettis and incoming signee Austin Johnson. Bonnies' assistant coach Dino Presley is also a native of Philadelphia.
- St. Bonaventure's roster features one player from New Jersey in redshirt freshman guard Da'Quan Cook. Cook hails from Elizabeth, N.J., and attended St. Patrick's High School.
- St. Bonaventure is 42-31 in the month of November dating back to 1975.
- The Scarlet Knights will have more than 20 televised games in 2008-09. The most recent addition to the TV slate was the Scarlet Knights game against St. Bonaventure, which will be televised on SNY.

DOWNRIGHT INTIMIDATING

RU junior center Hamady Ndiaye has been dominant thus far. This past Friday in the 69-55 victory over Robert Morris, he grabbed 10 rebounds, while registering eight blocked shots for the second time in as many home games this season. In the 85-77 win at Delaware, he made a career-best 11 FGs taking a career-high 14 shots en route to a career-best 26 points. He scored 16 in the first half. His previous career-high point total was 14, posted versus Cincinnati last season. RU scored 44 points in the paint against the Blue Hens. That performance followed the season opening win over Marist, when he had a then career-best eight blocks to help RU to a school-tying record total of 16. Ndiaye's previous career-high was seven, achieved twice. Ndiaye also had a career-best three steals and attempted his first career three-pointer against the Red Foxes. Ndiaye's eight rejections are tied for the eighth-most in a game in RU history.

Hamady was outstanding," said coach Fred Hill after the UD win. "He played an unbelievable game. "In my 28 seasons of coaching, I have never seen a young man come so far in two years. The last two games, I think we have got a little glimpse. He has a lot of room to grow, still. He's the poster child for coach-ability, hard work, being a good kid, listening and just getting better and better."

2008-09 RUTGERS MEN'S BASKETBALL GAME NOTES

RUTGERS: THE TEAM FROM THE TURNPIKE

The New Jersey Turnpike is one of the most densely traveled roadways in the nation. Completed in 1951, the highway connects the Philadelphia metropolitan area to the New York metropolitan area and provides access to most talent-rich areas in the basketball world. As such, Rutgers head coach Fred Hill often speaks of the program's mission to "recruit the Turnpike." Accordingly, every member of the Scarlet Knights men's basketball program has a connection to the 148-mile stretch.

FANTASTIC FRESHMEN

Freshmen Mike Rosario and Gregory Echenique have been as good as advertised. In the season opener both were in the starting lineup and led the team in minutes played, with Echenique logging 36 minutes and Rosario playing 33. Echenique had a double-double, grabbing 15 rebounds and scoring 11 points, while also registering six blocks. His 15 rebounds marked the most for a RU player in a season opener since Rashod Kent had 18 rebounds in a 64-61 win over FDU in 2000. Rosario shot 7-15 to post a team-high 17 points. His 17 points marked the most for an RU freshman in his first collegiate game since Charles Jones scored 19 in a 70-64 win over Manhattan on Nov. 27, 1993.

At Delaware, Rosario shot 5-7 to score 17 points in a team-high 33 minutes. He also made 5-6 free throws in the final 1:00 to help seal 85-77 win. Echenique also shot 5-7, en route to 10 points, and contributed to 44 points in the paint by RU. This past Friday in the 69-55 win over Robert Morris, Rosario shot 10 of 18 from the field, including five of 12 from behind the arc while playing a game-high 35 minutes, to score 27 points. It marked the most points for an RU freshman since Quincy Douby dropped 35 in an NIT semifinal game against Iowa State in 2004. Echenique grabbed nine rebounds and issued three blocks in 29 minutes versus the Colonials.

MILLER & JOHNSON SIGN WITH SCARLET KNIGHTS

Rutgers announced On November 12 that forwards Dane Miller (Henrietta, N.Y./Rush-Henrietta HS), and Austin Johnson (Cheltenham, Pa./Blair Academy) have signed National Letters of Intent to compete for the Scarlet Knights. Miller and Johnson are both nationally-rated prospects and captains of their respective teams.

"We are extremely pleased to welcome Dane and Austin into the program," said Head Coach Fred Hill. "Our mission at Rutgers is to compete for a BIG EAST and a National Championship. Both of these young men have the talent, character and commitment to contribute toward this goal. They are unselfish players who each bring a little something different to the forward position."

The signings follow a four player (Gregory Echenique, Patrick Jackson, Christian Morris, Mile Rosario) 2007-08 recruiting class that was nationally ranked by multiple outlets, including a No. 19 ranking from Scout.com. In 2006-07, the Scarlet Knights signed three (Corey Chandler, Mike Coburn, Earl Pettis) nationally-rated prospects, each of which earned starts as freshmen last season. In 2005-06, RU inked all-conference candidate Hamady Ndiaye, who arrived on the Banks as the nation's 68-ranked overall player and No. 9 center.

RUTGERS DEFEATS CALDWELL 91-56 IN EXHIBITION ACTION

Rutgers junior center Hamady Ndiaye registered a triple double, scoring 11 points, grabbing 10 rebounds and registering 10 blocks in a 91-56 exhibition win over Caldwell Monday evening at the RAC. The Scarlet Knights shot 53.4 percent (31-58) from the field and dished out 18 assists to enter their regular-season opener Friday evening on a positive note.

Freshman Mike Rosario was as good as advertised in his collegiate hardwood debut, shooting eight-of-16 from the field and five-of-eight from behind the arc, to score a game-high 23 points. Fellow rookie Gregory Echenique also shined, shooting five-of-six, en route to 14 points, while also grabbing eight rebounds. Echenique played a game-high 30 minutes.

The Scarlet Knights took a 9-6 lead on a Rosario three-pointer with 16:53 showing in the opening half and never looked back. Rutgers built its lead to 17 points prior to the midpoint and then proceeded to dominate the second half. The 91-56 final score, capped by a Christian Morris slam dunk, marked the home squad's largest advantage of the evening. All five starters scored in double figures for RU, including Anthony Farmer, who had 13 points, and Earl Pettis, who contributed. Every player that saw action for the Scarlet Knights scored a point and grabbed a rebound.

Caldwell was limited to a 30.8 percent (20-65) shooting mark.

FARMER, NDIAYE NAMED RUTGERS TEAM CAPTAINS

Senior guard Anthony Farmer and junior center Hamady Ndiaye have been named team captains for the 2008-09 season by the Rutgers men's basketball program. Farmer and Ndiaye were selected captains via a team vote.

2008-09 RUTGERS MEN'S BASKETBALL GAME NOTES

"Anthony and Hamady are not only gifted basketball players, they are exceptional young men," said head coach Fred Hill. "I am very proud of the team's selection of them as captains. I have every confidence in their abilities to provide the leadership we will require to be successful."

Farmer is a stalwart at both ends of the floor. The 2007-08 team MVP, he directs the offense from the point guard position, while often receiving the unenviable task of guarding the opponent's best offensive player. A fourth-year senior, he entered 2008-09 with three years of starting experience. Ndiaye is a defensive force who has played his best basketball against some of the top centers in the country. Last season, he ranked 10th nationally and second in the BIG EAST in blocked shots, while tallying 93 rejections, fifth-most in RU season annals. He was also a top candidate for BIG EAST most improved player honors. In just two seasons, has 161 career blocks, sixth on the RU all-time chart.

RU'S TOP 20 RECRUITING CLASS

Scout.com ranked Rutgers' 2008 scholastic recruiting class, comprised of four nationally-rated prospects, 19th nationally. The class was also rated tied-for-22nd nationally by Hoop Scoop and 30th by Rivals.com. The class is comprised of All-American guard Mike Rosario, forward Greg Echenique, forward Christian Morris and forward Patrick Jackson. Junior forward Jonathan Mitchell, who won a national championship at Florida and was the State of New York's Mr. Basketball in 2006, is not included in the recruiting class rankings. Mitchell will participate in all team activities in 2008-09 for RU, but will be unable to compete in games under NCAA transfer guidelines.

The Scarlet Knights are one of five BIG EAST schools recognized in the top 20 by Scout. The ranking placed the Scarlet Knights' recruiting class in the top fivepercent of all Division I basketball schools.

THE BIG EAST RULES THE RANKINGS

A record seven BIG EAST teams appeared in both the 2008-09 Associated Press and ESPN/USA Today preseason polls. Four teams were ranked among the nation's top nine in both polls. It marked the first time that an AP preseason poll has had seven teams from the same conference. In the most recent poll, seven teams remained ranked, with four in the top nine and Syracuse and West Virginia receiving votes in both polls. Eight BIG EAST teams received NCAA Tournament bids in 2007-08.

CELEBRITY GOLF OUTING RAISES $25,000 FOR V FOUNDATION

The annual Fred Hill Celebrity Golf Classic was held under sunny skies On September 22 at Spring Lake Golf Club. The exciting event was a resounding success and saw a check in the amount of $25,000 presented to Bob Valvano, Jim's brother, for the V Foundation for Cancer Research.

Among the celebrities that attended the Classic were Nets assistant coach Tom Barrise, former NFL and RU tight end Marco Battaglia, WNBC 4 sportscaster Bruce Beck, Nets analyst Tim Capstraw, N.Y. Metropolitan sports personality Chris Carlin, MSG's Jimmy Cavallo, ESPN commentator John Celestand, former N.J. Devils defenseman Ken Daneyko, four-time NBA champion Ron Harper, Nets assistant and former NBA head coach Brian Hill, former NBA player Eric Murdock, WPLJ's Joe Nolan, former NBA player and current TV analyst Jim Spanarkel, former NBA All-Star Kelly Tripucka, ESPN Radio sportscaster Bob Valvano, and Chairman and Managing Partner of the Devils Jeff Vanderbeek.

FORMER RU ASSISTANT DICK VITALE INDUCTED INTO HOF

Former Rutgers assistant men's basketball coach Dick Vitale was formally inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame on September 5. A native of Passaic, N.J., Vitale served as an assistant under head coach and current RU radio analyst Dick Lloyd for the Scarlet Knights for the 1971-72 and 1972-73 seasons and helped RU to an NIT berth in 1972-73.

Vitale helped mentor many notable Scarlet Knights during his tenure, including eventual All-Americans Phil Sellers and Mike Dabney, as well as future RU Hall of Famer Gene Armstead. Vitale was instrumental in bringing in the 1972-73 freshmen class of Sellers, Dabney, Mike Palko, Bruce Scherer and Jeff Kleinbaum. The group would lead the Scarlet Knights to an undefeated regular season and the Final Four as seniors in 1976-76.

GETTING THE JOB DONE IN THE CLASSROOM

All seven men's basketball seniors have earned diplomas since the program has been under the direction of Fred Hill. In 2007-08, Byron Joynes graduated with a degree in criminal justice with a minor in Africana Studies. In 2006-07, all six seniors on the roster earned diplomas. It marked the highest number of graduates in the BIG EAST Conference. Sophomore Kofi Genfi, an engineering major, was cited on the Dean's List and was named to the 2007-08 BIG EAST All-Academic team. Three Scarlet Knights were on the 2006-07 BIG EAST All-Academic team.

In the NCAA's recently released Academic Progress Rate public report, Rutgers received a multiyear score of 953, which ranked in the top 30 percent of Division I men's basketball programs.

NEW JERSEY'S COACHING FAMILY

Coaching is in Fred Hill's bloodlines as his father, Fred Hill Sr., is the long-time, highly-successful head baseball coach at Rutgers. The duo is the only father-son combo to serve as head coaches at the same university at the Division I level. In 2007, the elder Hill was named the ABCA East Region Division I Coach of The Year after leading his team to a BIG EAST title and the NCAA Regional. In addition, his uncle, Brian Hill, has been a head coach on both the collegiate and NBA levels, and is currently an assistant with the New Jersey Nets. Hill worked under his uncle Brian as an assistant at Lehigh in 1982-83.

THE BIG EAST - THE NATION'S PREMIER BASKETBALL LEAGUE

- A BIG EAST team has made the Final Four 13 times in the league's 29-year history. A BIG EAST team has played in the national title game 10 times. Overall in their histories, fifteen of the Conference's 16 members have competed in the Final Four.
- For the second time in three seasons, the BIG EAST earned a record eight bids to the NCAA Championship in 2008. In addition, the BIG EAST is the only conference to place at least one team in every Elite Eight since 2002. Since the league began play in 1979-80, BIG EAST teams own a 238-145 (.621) record in NCAA play.
- Four BIG EAST men's basketball players were selected in the 2008 NBA Draft. The BIG EAST has had 21 players selected in the last three NBA Drafts, including 12 first-round picks.
- The BIG EAST has always been acknowledged as a leader in college sports television. Twelve of the 16 conference schools are located in the top 34 media markets in the country. For the second straight season, the league schedule includes a record number of national television appearances and all 144 regular-season league games on television. In total, 49 of the 144 regular-season BIG EAST games (or 34 percent) will be on national television. The remaining games will be carried on ESPNU, ESPN360 or ESPN Regional/BIG EAST Network.
- The 2009 BIG EAST Championship will take place at Madison Square Garden from March 10-14. All 16 teams will compete, with the top four teams in the final regular season standings earning byes through two rounds and the 5-8 seeds receiving first round byes.

HEAD COACH FRED HILL

A "throwback, old-school coach," Fred Hill is in his third season directing Rutgers' men's basketball program. The Verona, N.J. native enters 2008-09 with 27 seasons of Division I coaching experience and eight BIG EAST postseason appearances on his resume.

Rutgers recently recognized the progress the program had made under Hill's leadership and announced a two-year contract extension on May 29, 2008. The extension provides that his contract will continue through the 2012-13 campaign.

"Fred Hill's unwavering commitment to Rutgers and his relentless pursuit of excellence have established a foundation for future success," said Director of Athletics Robert E. Mulcahy III. "Freddie's passion for Rutgers University, his student-athletes, and the state of New Jersey is genuine and tangible. I am very proud to re-affirm our commitment to him. We look forward to the realization of the goals he has set forth for this program."

Under Hill's direction, Rutgers signed a 2008-09 recruiting class that is one of the most heralded in program history. The class, ranked No. 19 nationally by Scout.com, includes four nationally-rated scholastic prospects and the first McDonald's All-American (Mike Rosario) in team annals. It came on the heels of a 2007-08 campaign that saw Hill lead his young team to back-to-back wins over nationally-ranked foes (#18 Villanova, #13 Pittsburgh). The team boasted a sophomore ranked among the nation's top shot blockers (center Hamady Ndiaye), a National Freshman of the Week (guard Mike Coburn) and a BIG EAST All-Rookie honoree (guard Corey Chandler).

In addition, all seven men's basketball seniors have earned their diplomas under Hill's guidance. In the NCAA's most recent Academic Progress Rate public report, Rutgers received a multiyear score of 953, which ranked in the top 30 percent of Division I men's basketball programs.

"There is no other program that I would rather be coaching basketball at than Rutgers, our state university. This is home," said Hill when his contract extension was announced. "I am extremely grateful for the confidence that Rutgers University has shown in me. I fully understand the responsibility that comes along with it, and I look forward to delivering a championship program that Rutgers and the State of New Jersey will be proud of."

Born and raised in the Garden State, Hill recognized a life-long dream when he was named head coach of the Scarlet Knights on March 27, 2006.

"Our program will be built on basic characteristics," said Hill. "We're going to be known for our toughness, our togetherness, our hard work, our passion and our pride in Rutgers University. Players need to be put in the right role. Ideally, with the personnel we bring in, I'd like to get up and down the floor on offense and use multiple defensive looks, but again, it comes down to putting guys in the right position to be successful."

At the core of Hill's coaching and personal philosophy is a commitment to community service. Echoing John Wooden's famous quotation that "You can't live a perfect day without doing something for someone who will never be able to repay you," he takes a proactive approach to civic responsibility. He is a strong supporter of the Jimmy V Foundation, founded by ESPN and the late Jim Valvano, who co-captained the 1966-67 Rutgers squad. Proceeds from Hill's annual Celebrity Golf Classic benefit the foundation. He is also active with Jack's Kids, an initiative to raise money to combat childhood cancer.

Rutgers men's basketball players are active in community outreach under Hill's leadership. The team participates annually in the national "Read Across America" program and reads to children at local elementary schools. In addition, every player is assigned a pen pal at a local elementary school via "Scarlet Letters," a program sponsored by men's basketball that further enables the Scarlet Knights to serve as positive role models in the surrounding communities.

Hill is the driving force behind the annual "New Jersey Legends of Basketball Clinic," sponsored by Rutgers and the NJSIAA, which held its third clinic this past October. It is open to all coaches and covers a wide range of topics, including scoring strategies, specialty plays, multiple defenses and basketball philosophies. Among the legendary hardwood mentors to participate are Tom Brennan, Hubie Brown, Pete Carril, John Carroll, Patty Coyle, Bob Farrell, Mike Fratello, Brian Hill, Bob Hurley, Sr. and Rollic Massimino.

The Legends clinic is not the only camp to achieve success under Hill. This Scarlet Knights' summer clinics attract over 1,000 scholastic players and more than 100 high school teams.

Since taking the helm "On The Banks," Hill has made great strides in improving team resources and operations. A locker room renovation, the hiring of a strength and conditioning specialist exclusively for basketball and streamlined team travel have been achieved during his tenure. The Scarlet Knights charter to away contests, enabling players to spend more time in the classroom.

Widely regarded as one of the Eastern basketball's top recruiters, Hill has helped recruit and mentor seven BIG EAST Student-Athletes that have gone on to the NBA careers since 2001. Included in the group is former Rutgers guard and 2006 first round pick Quincy Douby.

Prior to being named the program's 16th head coach, Hill served as Associate Head Coach for the Scarlet Knights during the 2005-06 season. In this capacity, he earned his first courtside victory at the helm. He led Rutgers to a 91-84 win over Marquette on Feb. 12, 2006, while serving as acting head coach that afternoon.

Before Rutgers, Hill spent four seasons as an assistant coach at Villanova University, including the final two as associate head coach. He was a major factor in the recruitment of Villanova's highly-acclaimed recruiting classes of 2002 and 2003, and played a key role in on-court teaching and in-game strategy. Villanova reached the Sweet 16 in 2005 and advanced to the Elite Eight in 2006.

Hill served three seasons (1998-2001) as an assistant coach at Seton Hall University, where he was part of the staff that helped steer the Pirates to the Sweet 16 in 2000 and secure the top-ranked recruiting class in the nation that year.

Prior to his stint at Seton Hall, Hill served seven years as an assistant coach at Fairleigh Dickinson University, including his final three seasons as associate head coach. In Hill's final season at FDU, the Knights were 23-7 and captured the NEC title. The team advanced to the NCAA tournament to face No. 2 seed Connecticut. Guard Elijah Allen scored 43 points, the third highest output all-time in the East Region, but the 15th-seeded Knights dropped a hard-fought 93-85 decision to the Huskies.

Hill has also served as an assistant coach at the University of Maine (1988-91), Marquette University (1986-88), Rider College (1983-86) and Lehigh University (1982-83). His first college coaching position was at his alma mater, Montclair State College, in 1981-82.

Born March 26, 1959, Hill is a 1977 graduate of Verona High School and a 1981 graduate of Montclair State College. At MSC, he was an All-Conference guard as a senior on a team that reached the NCAA Division III Tournament. He earned a degree in business administration.

Coaching is in Hill's bloodlines as his father, Fred Hill Sr., is the long-time, highly-successful head baseball coach at Rutgers. The duo is the only father-son combo to serve as head coaches at the same university at the Division I level. The elder Hill completed his 25th season at Rutgers in 2008 and was named the ABCA East Region Division I Coach of The Year in 2007 after leading his team to a BIG EAST title and the NCAA Regional. In addition, his uncle, Brian Hill, has been a head coach on both the collegiate and NBA levels, and is currently an assistant with the New Jersey Nets. The Hills are often referred to as "New Jersey's Coaching Family."

RUTGERS POSTGAME NOTES

Rutgers' 16 blocks tied the school record. The Scarlet Knights also had 16 blocks in an 85-51 win over St. Bonaventure on January 16, 1992.

Mike Rosario's 17 points marked the most for an RU freshman in his first collegiate game since Charles Jones scored 19 points in a 70-64 win over Manhattan on November 27, 1993.

Gregory Echenique's 15 rebounds marked the most for a RU player in a season opener since then junior Rashod Kent had 18 rebounds in a 64-61 win over FDU on November 19, 2000. It also marked the most rebounds in a game for an RU player since Adrian Hill grabbed 18 against Notre Dame in 2007.

Hamady Ndiaye's eight blocks marked a new career high. His eight rejections are tied for the eighth-most in a game in RU history. Ndiaye's previous career-high was seven, achieved twice. Ndiaye also had a career-best three steals and attempted his first career three-pointer.

A pair of freshmen led the Scarlet Knights in minutes played, with Gregory Echenique logging 36 minutes and Mike Rosario playing 33. Both were in the starting lineup. The last time a pair of freshmen were in the starting lineup in a season opener was in 2005-06, when current seniors Anthony Farmer and JR Inman started in a 66-46 win over Austin Peay.

Earl Pettis had a career-high three steals.

RUTGERS POSTGAME NOTES

Junior center Hamady Ndiaye made a career-best 11 field goals taking a career-high 14 shots en route to a career-best 26 points. He scored 16 in the first half. His previous career-high point total was 14, posted versus Cincinnati last season.

Senior guard Anthony Farmer and freshman guard Mike Rosario both made five of six free throws in the final minute of the game to help seal the win.

Farmer had five assists to move into a tie for 12th place all time st RU with Rich Brunson (1989-93) with 289 career helpers.

Rutgers' 60.4 field goal percentage marked its best in a victory since the Scarlet Knights shot 63.6 percent in a 75-73 win over Nebraska on Dec. 2, 2006. RU shot 61.7 percent in a 75-73 loss at DePaul on Jan. 19, 2008.

The victory marked RU's 17th win over Delaware in the last 19 meetings.

Seniors JR Inman and Jaron Griffin saw their first action after being suspended from game action on September 5 by head coach Fred Hill for a violation of team policies.

RUTGERS POSTGAME NOTES

Mike Rosario eclipsed his previous season high of 17 points with a game-high 27. It marked the most points scored by a first-year player since March 30, 2004, when then-rookie Quincy Douby scored 35 points in a 84-81 overtime victory against Iowa State in the NIT semifinals.

Hamady Ndiaye tied his career high with eight blocks. Ndiaye established the career mark earlier this season, rejecting eight shots against Marist.

Patrick Jackson scored the first points of his Scarlet Knight career, connecting on a pair of free throws in the closing minutes.

The Scarlet Knights pulled down 40 rebounds, marking the third-straight game Rutgers has recorded 40 or more rebounds.

Rutgers shot 85.7 percent (18-of-21) from the free throw line. It was the Scarlet Knights best shooting percentage from the charity stripe since Dec. 21, 2007, when RU went 88.9 percent (8-of-9) against Rider.

Anthony Farmer had three assists to move into 12th place all-time at RU with 292 career helpers.

JR Inman had two blocks to move into 11th place all-time at RU with 91 career rejections.
